

On October 9, 2018 Herb Brownett, President of Brownett & Associates, LLC led a discussion to over 50 Massachusetts Chapter members on “What Should a Construction CFO Really Be Doing”. The presentation focused on how senior construction financial managers should spend their time and covered a number of topics including strategic planning issues, business continuity planning and important construction company metrics.

